VI. Officer Reports

Position	Name	Report
Advisor	Dr. Courtney Skiles	Good morning, everyone! I hope you enjoyed the movie and painting last night, and all of our wonderful breakout and keynote speakers from yesterday. Thank you for keeping all of the paint on the tablecloths and not on the floors, or walls- we really appreciate it! I also saw a lot of you went to the beach during dinner, and we would love to see your pictures, so make sure to tag us so we can share them! I thank you again for your continued good behavior in the hotel- I am excited to report that we have had no complaints from the hotel. Tonight will be a very long general assembly, so please caffeinate accordingly and be ready to debate, celebrate, and help us wrap up the biggest day of our annual convention! I have truly loved being here in Galveston with all of you, and I am sad this is the last full day. I hope you all make the most of this opportunity and cherish these final few meetings we have here in Galveston. I yield the floor to Madam Advisor Elect.
Advisor Elect	Kelly Sonnanstine	- If you had not noticed yet, the hotel has been invaded by tiny little spary cheerleaders. So if is even more important that we watch our language and behaviors. If any of them look lost they are competing in the convention center of the hotel so they will walk toward the entertainment room from last night and just keep on walking. - Lunch is on your own today but it is a short amount of time, if you prefer the Cafe in the Park is offering a buffet for lunch. It is all you can eat for $20.99. - Watch out for Instagram for any announcements throughout the day and rest of the convention. - CEP is due today at noon. The email to submit is tjcsgeboard@gmail.com. I yield the floor to Madam Host School.
Host	Mascedia Aluizo	A reminder that you must have your ID badges when attending any session that the dress code is in place. If you lose your nametag I only have a limited number of replacements. You will need to provide a very good explanation of why you no longer have your ID badge. Upon my granting of replacement, that will be your last badge awarded to you. We encourage you to wear your ID badge around your neck during required times. I hope that we can all be responsible and respectful of this privilege to attend and interact in the convention. I yield the floor to Madam Historian.
Historian	Mainel Kabasele	I hope you're enjoying your time, I would like to remind everyone to follow us and stay active on social media, so you can stay updated throughout the convention. Tag us and we'll repost you! I yield the floor to Madam Treasurer.
Treasurer	Miranda Scott	Thank you madam historian Since our last assembly, our new balance is $155,761.07. This is still without paying for the convention. Lastly, if you are missing any money please come and see me after this general assembly. Thank you and I now yield the floor to Madam Parliamentarian.
Parliamentarian	Jadyn Moore	I hope you guys all had a good night's rest. I would like to remind you guys that the dress code is in full effect. Business dress code is for during the convention activities and meetings. During free time, please refrain from vulgar, inappropriate, or profane clothing or behavior. This includes explicit music or language. Remember, we represent TJCSGA to our peers on a state level, and this is a family resort. Lastly, please remember to wear your convention badge at all times. I yield the floor to Madam Secretary.
Secretary	Mia Herrera	The minutes are completed and Madam Historian uploaded them on the website. They can be located underneath the Agenda and Minutes tab in the 2025 convention details tab. Reminder to everyone when you make a motion and or second a motion please approach the Assistant Secretary to write down your information, so that we can maintain accurate minutes. I yield the floor to Mr. Vice President.
Vice President	Youcef Daddi	I hope you all had a fun movie night and had fun painting your bags. Today marks our first day of workshops and we will have our keynote speaker this afternoon. I will more about that a bit later. I yield the floor to Madam President.
President	Malak Elkady	I have continued to check in with the committees and I can confirm a lot of great progress is being made. These individuals have been working so hard and deserve to be recognized. If you are in a committee, please stand up. [Clap]
